HAPPY
LABOR DAY!

September 1st, 2008

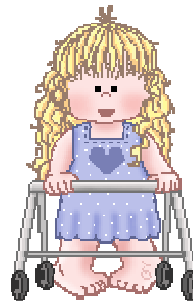

September 29th, 2008

To everyone who has a birthday this month

September 2nd to October 1st, 2008

THANKS, FRIENDS!

I would like to thank everyone who came to see me in the hospital, sent gifts and cards, phoned and otherwise expressed good wishes on my surgery.

Also, since my return, so many people have been kind enough to bring me things, assist me with some tasks that are hard for me to do at the moment, phone calls, offers of help. Thank you to everyone.

I am on a partial weight bearing regime, whereby I cannot put any weight on my right side until I see the doctor on the 2nd of October so needless to say I am not a happy camper at the moment but know that the time will pass fast and I will be back to normal soon.

President's Message

May you live in interesting times ancient Chinese proverb curse

We were all shocked by the news of our property manager's decision to leave after many years of professional, expert service to our community. We will miss their smiles and laughter. Thank you to all those who came to our meeting held the day of the announcement.
I am reassured by your restraint, respect for your neighbours, grace and humour during these emotionally charged days. Your Board of Directors will be working very hard over the next while to ensure a smooth transition.

Out and About

Submitted by Robert Richard

I have discovered a nice little diner in the neighbourhood called Chew Chew's. They mentioned that they are planning on offering seniors and students discounts in the fall. The food was good and reasonably priced. Service was good too. Friendly.

Not So Sweet

Before I married Nelly Dear, I was her pumpkin pie, her precious peach, her honey lamb, the apple of her eye.
But after years of married life, this thought pause to utter Those fancy names are gone and now I'm just her bread and butter!
