Thanksgiving Turkey

Submitted by Sylvia Keshen

The turkey shot out of the oven and
rocketed into the air
It knocked every plate off the table and
partly demolished a chair
It ricocheted into a corner and burst with a deafening boom
Then splattered all over the kitchen,
completely obscuring the room
It stuck to the walls and windows
It totally coated the floor
There was turkey attached to the ceiling,
where there'd never been turkey before
It blanketed every appliance
It smeared every saucer and bowl
There wasn't a way I could stop it that turkey was out of control!
I scraped and scrubbed with displeasure
and thought with chagrin as I mopped
That I'd never again stuff a turkey, with popcorn that hadn't been popped;

Recycling Corner by Bill McGuire

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE

In general, household hazardous waste is your unwanted material which is either flammable, explosive, corrosive or poisonous.

Some examples are household batteries, old/unused medication, cleaning supplies and solvents, paint, mercury thermometers/thermostats, fluorescent lighting tubes/bulbs, pesticides, motor oil, empty propane and other compressed gas cylinders.

None of these materials should be deposited in either our recycling bins or in the garbage.

FOR PROPER DISPOSAL

- Household batteries may be brought to our Management office
- Old/unused medications may be brought to some local pharmacies. Check first with your pharmacy
- Most other household hazardous waste has to go to a household hazardous waste depot.
- For more than 10 litres of hazardous waste and if you can wait approximately six weeks, you may call 416-392-4330 to arrange for a free-of-charge pick-up at your unit by Toronto's Toxics Taxi. If you have less than ten litres, call them and explain—they may still accept it.
- Otherwise, you would have to bring your hazardous waste to a household hazardous waste depot. The nearest such depot to us is at 400 Commissioners Street (Commissioners runs east from Cherry Street) at Bouchette St. on the northeast corner, roughly 1 km east of Cherry. Enter from Bouchette and see the attendant at the household hazardous waste depot just to the right of the entrance. The hours are:

10.00 am – 6:00 pm, Wednesdays
7:00 am – 12.30 pm Saturday

Presenting materials in their original, labeled containers would probably in most cases be easiest way for the householder. Do not mix different substances in the same container.

For further information and volume limits check www.toronto.ca/hhw or call 416-392-4330.

Thank You for Caring About Our Environment.

President's Message

By Chris Lambert

The interesting times continue here at 40 Homewood!

Our interim management team arrived on September 15th. Steve and Jennifer are doing a great job settling in, keeping the building running and administering our Requisition Meeting on the 8th. Thanks to all who attended our September 18th meeting to meet Brookfield, discuss current events and learn about the requisition meeting. I am once again reassured that we can adapt to these changes. I ask you to become informed of the issues involved in the Requisition Meeting, and attend in person or fill our your proxy. Your Board of Directors is meeting weekly and working very hard to ensure a smooth transition.

Top 10 Signs You Are Too Old to Be Trick or Treating

- You get winded from knocking on doors.
 - You have to have another kid chew the candy for you.
 - You ask for high fibre candy only.
 - When someone drops a candy in your bag, you lose your balance and fall over.
 - People say "Great Keith Richards mask!" and you're not wearing a mask.
 - When the door opens, you yell "Trick or...." and can't remember the rest.
 - By the end of the night, you have a bag full of restraining orders.
 - You have to carefully choose a costume that won't dislodge your hairpiece.
 - You're the only Power Ranger in the neighbourhood with a walker.
 - You avoid going to houses where your ex-wives live.

The Scotsman Who Loved the Bagpipes

Written by Don Sangster

In a London hospital was a Scotsman
Who lay dying
His family gathered 'round his bed
Some of whom were crying

"Before I go" the Scotsman said
"I have a last request"
"To hear the pipes for one more time
Before I'm laid to rest."

The doctors and the nurses
Searched London high and low
They found a piper who declared
"The bagpipes I will blow!"

So he commenced to play the pipes
Hour after hour
The sweetest sound the Scot had heard
Not a single note was sour.

From morn to night the piper played
He played without a stop
But after 30 hours straight,
He was almost fit to drop.

But soon, just like a miracle,
The Scot sat up in bed.
He was looking hale and hardy
Instead of being dead.

Now the Scotsman has recovered,
On the music he had thrived.
But in that ward...unfortunately,
All the other patients died"

Movies with Don

Don has decided to post the list of upcoming movies for the next month. This will be a new feature in this newsletter.

This list is subject to change. Posters will still be posted on the bulletin boards.

Get Busy

Don't talk about what you're going to do
Don't boast until you're wholly through
Success means work—it's up to you.
Get Busy

There's work that's needed to be done
There's work enough for everyone
Don't think your life should be all fun
Get Busy

The idle ones won't get ahead
You can't get rich by lying in bed

Halloween Goodies

As in the past, any donations towards the Halloween celebration would be appreciated. Bring them to the Management Office.

We are also looking for volunteers who are willing to sit in the lobby on Halloween night for a couple of hours and distribute candy to the children and wannabee children in the building. Please let the Office know if you are available.
